widely touted as any youngster at the track and won his last out in very easy fashion from a fair class field. He hardly seems good enough to tie up with Kelley. however. Renaissance is worthy of consideration, as she seems an honest sort of youngster and gave Dameron a hard battle in her last start.

Had Renaissance not been taken wide on that occasion she would probably have won. The track was very soft, however, and the going of to-day may not suit her so well. So it looks as if Phil King should get second position.

Elastic is picking up a couple of pounds after each race, but that does not seem to bother him. He is in with a strong front runner to-day in the shape of Laura Hunter, and the mare may set too fast a pace for him. Inasmuch as the by Lemp sprinter never locked better in his life, he must be relected to win, with Laura Hunter second.

THIRD RACE IS FEATURE AT UNION

For Kelley will have another try for a burse at Delmar this afternoon and he low put first money in the 2-year-old event to the credit of Colonel Baker. Phil King and Renaissance should finish | trunk in the third race and feature. Nevclose behind him. Phil King has been as ertheless, The Messenger will have a following, as his price will doubtless be attractive.

It is hard to go back on W. B. Gates, but the old fellow does not figure to win today. Palm Reader tooks bully. His spiendid race of yesterday at a mile just whetted him for a sixteenth more, as he finished strong. Bluish will likely be the contender at the end. He is in good condition and looks like a good bet to place The Messenger should beat Gates.

Fondess, with top weight, 115 pounds, looks the best in the 2-year-old contest. The filly is game and fast. Bird of Pas-sage and Damy should finish second and third. Doctor Horne has a look-in at the King Crane, with 97 pounds, is attract-King Crane, with 57 pounds, is attractive in the first. His races have been consistent and he has been knocking at the door for the last two weeks, To-day it looks as though it would be "Come in" for King Crane. Squid likes the distance and should finish second. On his last race Doctor Pegasus is not entitled to better than third, although he shakes off thirteen pounds.

must be selected to win, with Laura Hunter second.

Radium has been tipped so often of late that she must be selected again to-day. This method of picking a winner looks best here, as Radium has just been in the money her last two outs, while Velasquez has won his last pair of starts. The Hayes entry should win from Velasquez, however, with Matt Wadleigh third.

Bting should like the weight and track and may win the last race from Gastighter. Hucena should be third. The Einstein mare may do better than this, considering her recent races, but Gastighter is a good colt when in form and must be considered a factor at the track after this.

Pourquof Pas could have easily defeated the bunch in the third race a couple of seasons ago. To-day, on her showing behind Tickful the last out, she ought to be returned the winner. Murmur was off very baddy in his last race and was the rear contestant all the way around. He should get in the money to-day.

In the first race Mathilde seems the best, locker outphart is Suspexpeed.

JOCKEY OLIPHANT IS SUSPENDED. On Account of Rough Riding in Second Race He Is Set Down.

Chicago, May 19.-Jockey Oliphant, who leads the riders in winning mounts at Worth, was suspended to-day for sixty days for rough riding in the second rac-turn.

An even dozen maiden 2-year-olds made up the field in the first race, and Dixie Lad, the 11-to-19 favorite, backed down from 7 to 5, proved the best. Greenrose, at 50 to 1, and Eckersall, backed from 89 down to 60, gave him a hard task until within twenty yards of the wire, where the favorite got to the front and won going away.

turn had been remched. She set too fost a pace to last, however, and when Foster set sail for her at the stable turn she had nothing left.

Foster then came on as though the heavy going was a pasteboard track, and galloped the rest of the way. Meran never had a charace to use early speed on necount of the hot pace in the first stages, but he came strongly enough to get the place from Clifton Boy.

Ingolthrift repeated the performance of leading a field under the aire by several lengths in the next race. He was twice cut off, had to go around his field, but passed them so if standing still when fairly set down. Until a few jumps from the wire it appeared as though Alino would get second place, but Lynch came strongly enough to get second money.

Jardin de Paris killed her chances in the second event, for 2-year-olds, by bolting directly behind a right bunch of leaders at the start. Starter bade explained that she broke quickly enough, was eager to get to the front, and rushed directly into the bunch, where she was humped back and lost some ground.

This lost her an opportunity to get first money and A Lady, who ran a fair race on her last out, came home an easy winner from Passive. The Hammond filly, as usual, ran a strong race and finished with considerable corrage, but was in the same jostling bunch at the start which threw out Jardin de Paris.

Graden, Aransas and Kinloch Park came to the wire in the first with narrow margins between them, after Myrtle White had led for the early stages and then collapsed. Notes of the Quarter Stretch Collete a number of important arrivals were listed at the Fair Grounds yesterday. The most important string to get in was that of Doctor Street, which includes such good ones as Hig Ben. Fort Royal, Cypriene and some nice byear-olds. M. K. Kittelman got in from New York with Foxy Kane, one of the best sprinters in the country in muddy soring, and Clear the Arena, a very handy 5-year-old. Jack Phillips brought Wreath of Iny and three ethers, as well as little Jimmie Hennessy, who developed into quite a rider at New Orleans last winter. Tom Kiley got in with five, including Bessie McChrithy and Tom Kiley. All the Incoming horsemen report that the best class at horses ever raced here will be along for the opening of the Fair Grounds sesson, and quite a number to take part in the Delmar meeting, which begins to-morrow.—Secretary Hackmeister has issued a notice -Secretary Hachmeister has issued a notice that owners and trainers can obtain their hadges fo-day at the Delmar office for the coming meet of the Delmar Association. Bernandena, who started in the second race at Delmar vesterday, is another one of the get of Peter McCue, who once created such a sensation at the Fair Grounds. It will be recalled that Peter was a large and speedy youngster and that he was once suspected of being a 1-year-old so big was he. Bernandena had some early speed in his race and may do something later.

BAR LE DUC WINS IN EASY FASHION FEATURE AT UNION

Erbe, Odds-on-Favorite a Disappointment, the Winner a Surprise.

M. Dalv's Bar Le Duc upset all calcutations and expectations by winning the feature at Union yesterday. It was, infeed, a surprise, so much so that the bookmakers laid the very liberal price of to to I against the 5-year-old Lamplighter. Not a few availed themselves of the good odds, yet it could not be called a "killing," for Erbe was heavily backed Somenos and Sneet, coupled in the betting as the Rice entry, were second choice.

M. Lowe piloted far Le Due to victors

Bar Le Duc appeared a budly beaten norse in the early appeared a leadly beaten horse in the early running, but Lowe planted his mount's feet on every good bit of going on the track took him wide around the field on the stretch turn and then picked his way down the straight, avoiding the sonsy places and defeating the string Somenos. Somenos broke well in motion, and shot to the front lifte a bullet, followed by Sneer. The latter dropped out of the running at the three-quarters and Erbe moved up. Far Le Duc was last at the stretch turn, but Lowe avoided being pocketed and came with a rush, passing Erbe, Hilarity. Springbrook won the third event, and will hereafter run with blinkers. In her two previous starts the mare acted badly at the post, and her last out she was eft. Starter McKnight suggested that the be equipped with blinkers, and she broke well and went on and won from Crossmolina and Chicago Girl. Inspector Shea, the favorite, ran as if dragging a log cart.

Shea, the favorite ran as if dragging a log cart.

McKinney on Will Shelly slipped in on the rail at the stretch turn and landed his mount a winner when there seemed no chance for him. Calvit's ride on Tressilian, the even-money favorite, was faulty. Miss Gould at even money was really the best bet of the day. The mare was pounds the best and showed her beels to the field when ready at the finish.

The last race was a two-horse affair. Palm Reader at 4 to 5 easily beat Rei Light, the only contender.

The attendance yesterday was the best of any day this week. There were more than 4.60 persons at the track.

To-day is ladies day and a good card is scheduled. The third race, a handleap at a mile and one-sixteenth, will be the feature. The Messenger, W. B. Gates, filuish and Palm Reader will start.
